

BULLYING PREVENTION

Bullying: What It Is and How to Help

Watching children experience the physical and emotional pain of bullying or cyberbullying is heartbreaking.

Some caregivers are unsure how to help protect children from bullying and violence. Others may not know if children are victims, bystanders or even perpetrators of harmful behaviors. This presentation will provide tips on how to navigate bullying with children in your life.

April 10
5 PM

Sierra Bible Church
15171 Tuolumne Rd

NotMyKid.Life
#NotMyKidTuCo

Pam Orebaugh

Pamela is an associate clinical social worker who joined TCSOS in 2022 as an Educationally Related Mental Health Services Clinician. She was born and raised in Twain Harte, graduated from Summerville High School, earned her bachelor's degree at UC Davis, and master's degree at Portland State University. She has worked in social services and provided trauma-informed services for 8 years and believes in promoting resilience, safety, and empowerment for all youth.

Darrell Slocum

Sonora Area Foundation CEO Darrell Slocum will introduce this session and share a personal story.

